

WORKSHOP

INDÚSTRIA CERÂMICA 4.0

2 fevereiro 2017

Luís Oliveira is the Director of Informatics Engineering Undergraduate Program of the Polytechnic Institute of Tomar (IPT). Develops his doctoral thesis at the Institute of Telecommunications (IT). MSc Degree and 5- year B.S. degree in Electronic and Telecommunications from University of Aveiro. Main interests include IPv6 multi-cast, mobility, cyber security, wireless mesh networks and wireless sensor networks. Member of IPv6 Portuguese Task force in mobility group. Participate in several research projects, among which are TAIQON (IT) and Medio Tejo. Digital. Supervises several graduate candidates in networking areas. Authored or co-authored in several refereed international conferences and journals. Prime legal contact, curriculum leader and trainer at Local IPT Cisco Academy. Consultant at Entersys Portugal for Switching, Management, Routing, Policy networks, IDS/IPS and Wireless. Currently cooperates with WithUS in R&D projects for Internet of Things (IoT).